WHAT IS THE NATIONAL PRISONER RESOURCE LIST?

The National Prisoner Resource List (NPRL) provides information about places where prisoners and their families can find support, advocacy, health care information, and outlets for their creativity. The National Prisoner Resource List is published by Prison Book Program in Quincy, MA, one of the dozens of "books to prisoners" programs listed herein.

WHAT IS THE PRISON BOOK PROGRAM?

We have been sending books to prisoners since 1972. We are staffed by volunteers and supported by many donors who care about literacy in prison.

WHO IS LUCY PARSONS AND WHAT IS THE LUCY PARSONS BOOKSTORE?

Lucy Parsons (1853 - 1942) was a radical American labor organizer, anarchist, and powerful public speaker. She was born in Texas (likely as a slave) to parents of Native American, African American, and Mexican ancestry. Because of her singular fight against social and economic oppression, Lucy led a controversial life. She always kept a sharp eye on the social revolution that she was convinced was necessary to change what she saw as the glaring excesses of the oppressive capitalist system. (Source: Wikipedia) Her legacy is alive in the Lucy Parsons Center, a Boston-area bookstore and gathering place for a wide range of concerned citizens.

WHO CAN REQUEST BOOKS?

Prisoners in all states as allowed by each facility except PLEASE NOTE We cannot send books to California, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Nevada, and Texas. We do not serve jails and short-term facilities or halfway houses. We cannot send books to libraries or prison staff. Prisoners are limited to one shipment every six months. Please put each prisoner request letter on a separate piece of paper.

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU

We want to provide you with the highest level of educational resources. Our greatest hope is to help you learn and achieve your goals with the books and resources we provide to you.

Please write us a letter if a book has helped you while you were/are in prison or if, upon leaving prison, it helps you succeed as you make a new start. (Get your GED, go to school, find a new job, start a business, etc.) Whether your success story is big or small, it is still a success, and we want to hear all about it!

Your artwork, personal stories of success, and how books have impacted you can make a huge difference to our program. We can take your letters and artwork to potential donors and ask for more books and more funds with which to buy postage for future book shipments. We appreciate your help!

We hope to continue sending books to people like you. Please encourage your family and friends to support us financially.

SEND US YOUR ADVICE AND SUGGESTIONS

Please help us keep this National Prisoner Resource List updated. If you discover incorrect information, disappointing resources, or new resources to be added to this listing, please let us know. We are constantly making updates and improvements to better assist you.

FREE BOOKS TO PRISONERS PROGRAMS

Groups listed here provide a variety of books like what you would find in a small bookstore or library. Books are free & yours to keep. Individuals & publishers donate books so what's available varies.

To request books, send your name as known to the DOC, ID Number, address with cell number, and a list of subjects that interest you. Specific titles are hard to fill. Note any facility restrictions on mailing books, if known.

Many programs have a backlog of several months, so please be patient. Books may not get to you if you are moving in the next few months. The Post Office does not forward Media Mail rate packages.
